Strange (or not so strange) routes, rates or dates

John Hunter

Feb 3, 2022

1904 – Sheffield to St. Petersburg – arrived before it was posted.

1912 – Japan to Sheffield, via Trans-Siberian Railway.

Entire view of the primary school, Kure.

Posted 31 Dec, 1911 Arrived ?

(via Osaka, Vladivostok, Moscow, St. Petersburg, Liverpool?)

1832 – Toronto (Canada) to London, via Lewiston, New York & Liverpool.

Postage pre-paid from Canada to New York (1s 4d to US border, then 2 x 25c = 50c from Lewiston to New York (double rate).

From the Bishop of Quebec (Lower Canada) to Archdeacon Anthony Hamilton, SPG secretary

Trans-Atlantic & GB Postage collected in London:

Dist. 170-230 miles = 11d.

Ship letter charge = 8d (total = 1s 7d) Triple letter rate 3 x 1s 7d = 4s 9d.

1832 – Toronto (Canada) to London, via Lewiston, New York & Liverpool.

The letter travelled via the Erie Canal (opened in October 1825)

1861 – Valparaiso, Chile, to Bordeaux, France, via the Panama Railway, London, Calais & Paris.

> Posted 17 July, 1861 Arrived 31 August

The Panama Railway opened in January 1855

GB charge mark, 2F 87 6/10c

1861 – Valparaiso, Chile, to Bordeaux, France, via the Panama Railway, London, Calais & Paris.

The Panama Railway opened in January 1855

1905 – Lourenco Marques to Lisbon via Pretoria.

The letter travelled overland to Cape Town instead of the coastal route.

